

Stations for image analysis

Two computers are available to analyse the experimental images using the MetaFluor or Metamorph off-line versions. Deconvolution of images is performed on the MRI/CRBM web site by means of the Huygens software (Scientific Volume Imaging) <http://www.mri.cnrs.fr/huygens/login.php>. The 3-D image assembly is made with the Imaris software (Bitplane).

